

RE:GR UP 2020

- 8:30 am Doors open (option: serving breakfast)
- 9:00 am Local Welcome
- 9:05 am The Four Traits of a Great Leader: There are four traits great leaders exhibit. Learn what these traits are and how you can coach your leaders towards them.
- 9:10 am Group discussion at tables
- 9:20 am How to Ask Good Questions: The art of asking a great question can lead you to grow in ways you never thought you could. Learn why leading with questions is crucial to life and leadership.
- 9:30 am Group discussion at tables
- 9:40 am Elective - Option 1: Choose the best option for your volunteers to watch from the list provided on the second page of this document.
- 9:50 am Group discussion at tables
- 10:05 am Elective - Option 2
- 10:15 am Group discussion at tables
- 10:30 am Break
- 10:40 am Elective - Option 3
- 10:50 am Group discussion at tables
- 11:05 am Top Five Topics for Men's Groups: What curriculum should we study? This is the number one question asked by small group leaders. Learn the top 5 men's topics and how to create your own curriculum paths.
- 11:15 am Top Five Topics for Women's Groups: What curriculum should we study? This is the number one question asked by small group leaders. Learn the top 5 women's topics and how to create your own curriculum paths.
- 11:25 am Top Five Topics for Couple's Groups: What curriculum should we study? This is the number one question asked by small group leaders. Learn the top 5 couples' topics and how to create your own curriculum paths.
- 11:35 am Group discussion at tables
- 11:55 am Dismiss (option: lunch)

RE:GR UP 2020

Elective Options:

Core vs. Peripheral Beliefs

How do you help people understand the foundations of our faith? Learn how to differentiate between the core and periphery of our faith.

Three videos, ~6 minutes each

The Story of The Bible

Understanding the metanarrative and how the different parts of the Bible contribute to the whole helps you lead yourself and your group better. Learn the story arc of the Bible.

Three videos, ~7 minutes each

How to Read the Bible

People struggle to understand how to read the Bible. Learn a simple framework (Observation, Interpretation, Application), you can teach your group so they can read the Bible for all it's worth.

Three videos, ~7 minutes each

Your Identity

What is our true identity? What does living out of that look like? Learn how to get to the place of knowing your identity in Christ and then living and leading from it.

Three videos, ~7 minutes each

How Groups Help People Grow Spiritually

Groups can serve as a spiritual formation strategy. Learn how your groups can help people grow spiritually.

Two videos, ~7 minutes each

What is the Gospel and How Do We Share It?

Understanding the Gospel and how to explain it can be confusing. Learn how to share the Gospel with someone.

Two videos, ~7 minutes each